

Payment Alliance International Acquires ATM Express, Inc

Addition of ATM Express Inc. Grows Network to Over 26,000 ATMs

LOUISVILLE, KY (March 24, 2008) – Payment Alliance International (PAI), a leader in electronic payment processing solutions announced today that it has acquired Montana based ATM Express, Inc. (ATM Express), one of America's most successful providers of ATM management services.

ATM Express has more than 500 affiliate sales organizations, by far the largest network of ATM resellers in the United States. This transaction grows PAI's customer base to over 26,000 ATM locations and more than 35,000 credit and debit merchants.

"This is an exciting event for everyone involved. ATM Express has excelled in providing network and sales support services to third parties and in so doing, has established long and wonderful relationships with its affiliate groups", said John Leehy, President & CEO of Payment Alliance International.

PAI has created a unique dynamic through the convergence of payment, cash management and money transfer solutions. At long last, Merchants can get truly integrated payment products designed to support their customer's buying preferences while bringing convenience and cost savings to their operations.

"This single source approach is right for our customers and great for our resellers. This combination brings us the most compelling product offering in the market today and is a distinctive response to the needs of our marketplace", according to Marty Ambuehl, President of ATM Express.
