PAI Announces Triple Crown Winner

Billings, Mont –March 4, 2009 – Payment Alliance International, (PAI), a growing force in today’s payment processing industry and the nation’s largest ATM deployer, announced today that Michael Espaillat of Premier ATM in Miami, Florida has won the Company’s Triple Crown Distributor Contest for selling the largest combinations of credit card processing and prepaid services during the first quarter of 2009.

Michael, who has been a PAI Distributor since 2003, beat out a large field of competitors to win this magnificent prize

“I am pleased to present this award to Michael,” said Neil Clark, PAI Senior Vice President. “Michael’s innovative and competitive spirit was a key factor in winning this contest. Michael’s drive and determination to succeed exemplifies the values of excellence, principled leadership and commitment to customers, partners and community on which PAI is built”

As winner of the PAI Triple Crown Contest, Michael and a guest will be treated to a magnificent weekend at the 135th running of the Kentucky Derby. They will receive 2 tickets to the Derby itself, an all expense evening on the town celebrating with celebrities at the Derby Festivities, an invitation-only luncheon at the Kentucky Derby Museum, and 3 night stay at a luxury hotel in Louisville.
