Payment Alliance International Inks ATM Branding Deal with OnPoint Community Credit Union

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 26, 2014 (Business Wire) -- Payment Alliance International \(PAI\), a leader in retail ATM solutions, and OnPoint Community Credit Union announced today they have entered into an agreement to brand ATMs at all 72 Rite Aid pharmacies in the state of Oregon. PAI will own and operate the ATMs which will be outfitted with OnPoint Community Credit Union's branding. OnPoint members will benefit from surcharge-free access to cash at Oregon Rite Aid pharmacies beginning July, 2014.

PAI operates one of the largest ATM networks in the United States, with ATMs at more than 60,000 retail locations across the country. As part of the network, PAI provides ATM services for approximately 1,500 Rite Aid locations nationwide. "The Rite Aid pharmacy locations provide an excellent opportunity to promote brand awareness, complement existing branch locations for enhanced member convenience and optimize points of presence to acquire new members," says Gregory W. Mercer, senior vice president for PAI. "We are thrilled to be able to serve OnPoint Community Credit Union and their members," adds Mercer.

"We are excited to put the OnPoint brand on ATMs in Rite Aid pharmacies throughout the state of Oregon," states Rob Stuart, president and chief executive officer for OnPoint Community Credit Union. "This benefits our members with convenient, surcharge-free access to cash right in the communities where they live and shop, plus enhances credit union visibility which helps us grow" adds Stuart.
