Payment Alliance International Receives Greater Louisville Best Places to Work Award

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 24, 2015 (Business Wire) – Payment Alliance International \(PAI\), a leader in electronic payment processing solutions, today announced it has been honored with Louisville Business First's "Best Places to Work" award. Honorees were recognized at an awards breakfast held at The Olmstead on Thursday, Aug. 20. More than 100 Louisville-based PAI employees were surveyed via email with an impressive 76 percent response rate, propelling the company's recognition as a top five Best Places to Work business in the 100 employees or more category.

"We consider it an honor to be included in the ranks of the best employers in the Greater Louisville area," says John J. Leehy III, president and chief executive officer for PAI. "This recognition affirms our company's efforts to cultivate a great working environment which ultimately results in superior service for our customers," adds Leehy. "In the end, all credit has to go to the wonderful people who make up the PAI team. It's their energy and commitment which drives our company forward."

New this year, "Best Places to Work" in Greater Louisville honors companies and nonprofit organizations that make their mark in the Louisville region, which includes Jefferson, Bullitt, Oldham and Shelby counties in Kentucky and Floyd, Clark and Harrison counties in Indiana. Whether they offer flexible schedules, family-friendly benefits or unusual team-building activities, honored employers take extra steps to stand out as "Best Places to Work." Honorees were determined based solely on employee responses to a survey conducted by Omaha, Neb.-based Quantum Workplace. The responses, factored in with level of employee engagement, determined a business or organization's score.

A "2015 Best Places to Work" in Greater Louisville feature article profiling PAI appeared in the August 21 issue of Louisville Business First.
