Payment Alliance International Earns Spot on Fast 50 List

Honored by Louisville Business First for Fifth Time

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 31, 2017 (Business Wire) – Payment Alliance International (PAI), the nation’s largest, privately-held ATM provider, today announced it has been recognized again as a Fast 50 company by Louisville Business First. Since being founded in 2005, PAI has been named on the esteemed list of fast 50 companies a total of five times in the Very Large Company category.

“Innovative solutions, new distribution channels, acquisitions and a new business line combined with awesome employees and customers are what fuels PAI’s continued growth and success,” said PAI President and CEO John J. Leehy, III. “We are pleased to make the Fast 50 list again and honored to be recognized along with many great high-growth businesses in the region,” added Leehy.

Louisville Business First honors the 50 fastest-growing independent and privately-held companies in the Greater Louisville area. Fast 50 companies must be independent, for-profit and privately held; have an average of at least $1 million in revenue for the three most recent years; be headquartered in Bullitt, Henry, Jefferson, Meade, Nelson, Oldham, Shelby, Spencer or Trimble counties in Kentucky, or Clark, Floyd, Harrison or Washington counties in Indiana; and have a three-year operating sales history. An awards luncheon was held Wednesday, October 25, at the Louisville Downtown Marriott.

A special publication included in the October 27 weekly edition of Louisville Business First highlights Top 50 companies.
